Preface

In 1921, Jinshiro Nakayama published, in Japanese, a two volume book on the history of the Nikkei in Canada as well as the profiles of prominent Japanese pioneers. Of greater genealogical importance to our community today is volume two which was a directory of Japanese living in Canada. With an aging Nisei population, coupled with a high rate of intermarriage among Canadian Nikkei, the Heritage Committee of the Japanese Canadian Cultural Centre saw the value in the translation of this Directory for future generations. The task of translating hundreds of pages of names was made more challenging since it was written in early style Japanese. Translating this style Japanese requires knowledge that a majority of Japanese do not possess today. The Japanese Canadian community is indebted to Bill Hashizume, who, upon my request, agreed to take on this project in 2006 until his passing on February 23, 2007, and to Saeko Suzuki whose commitment has made it possible for its completion.

William Tasaburo Hashizume was born in Mission, British Columbia in June 1922. In his third year of high school, his mother Etsu, following instructions of her late husband, left for Japan with Bill and his two younger sisters in order to provide them with education there. Graduating from Kwansei Gakuin Middle School in 1942, he entered Kobe Technical College and upon graduation as a civil engineer in 1944, he served in the Imperial Navy. In 1954, after being granted his Canadian citizenship, Bill returned home and until his retirement in June of 1987 worked as an engineer for the Ontario Ministry of Transportation. Upon retirement he used his extensive knowledge of the Japanese language to write 'Japanese Community in Mission: A Brief History 1904-1942' and translated the book 'History of Haney Nokai' written by Yamaga Yasutaro. It was at the book launch of Haney Nokai on June 21, 2006, that Bill agreed to take on the massive project of translating the Directory.

Saeko Suzuki was born in Tokyo and immigrated to Canada in 2006. She has a Masters Degree in Library Science and has extensive work experience as a librarian at various universities, research institutions and museums in Japan and the United States. Since 2004, she has worked on several multicultural database projects in North America. Her interest in Japanese immigrant experience led her to contact the Japanese Canadian Cultural Centre at a fortuitous time and she was able to seamlessly take over the project. Her academic discipline is evident in the translation and words cannot express my appreciation for her professionalism.

Mr. Jinshiro Nakayama did not share with us the source(s) for his directory and we are aware that there are names that are missing as there are other errors in the original. It is the wish of the Heritage Committee that this translation will be the necessary inspiration for Canadian Nikkei to research further into their family lineage and engage in dialogue with parents and grandparents about their ancestral past.

Finally, I wish to offer this Directory to the memory of Bill Hashizume as fulfillment of the sacred promise that I made to him a few months prior to his death.

In Gassho,

Ken Noma, Vice-President
Heritage Committee
Japanese Canadian Cultural Centre
